

ORDINANCE NO. 316

AN ORDINANCE PROHIBITING THE POSTING, PLACING, DISPLAYING AND ATTACHING OF SIGNS OR ANY ADVERTISING MATTER TO ANY TREE, POLE OR POST SITUATED ON ANY PUBLIC PROPERTY WITHIN THE CITY AND REGULATING ERECTION, PLACEMENT OR DISPLAY OF ADVERTISING MATTER ON PRIVATE PROPERTY.

The city of Aumsville, Oregon, ordains as follows:

Section 1. [Prohibited.] Except as otherwise specifically permitted, no person may:

- (A) Attach by any means whatsoever any advertising matter to any tree, pole or post situated on any public property within the city.

Section 2. [Posting on Private Property.] No person may display any advertising matter on or across any private property within the city without the express consent of the owner or person in charge of such property.

Section 3. [Exceptions.] Exceptions to ban on public advertising:

- (A) The banner displaying the date of the Corn Festival shall be permitted each year.
- (B) Upon request, the council may permit any person to display advertising for meetings or entertainment sponsored by public, civic, welfare, charitable, religious, or fraternal groups, notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 1 and 2 above. Any person desiring such permission shall apply to the city recorder who shall forward the request to the city council. If the council finds that such sign is not likely to endanger any person or property, it may grant the application, providing the terms and conditions for such posting, or it may reject such application.
- (C) Nothing in Sections 1 and 2 above will prohibit the proper display of notices of any election to be held by the federal, state, or city governments, or any postings called for in the ordinances of the city of Aumsville.

Section 4. Abatement.

- (A) The law enforcement agency of the city of Aumsville shall immediately remove any advertising matter or sign or other device displayed within the city in violation of any of the terms of this ordinance.

Section 5. Penalty.

- (A) Violations of this ordinance shall be deemed an offense punishable by a fine not to exceed $250. Every full business day during which a violation of this ordinance shall continue shall be a separate offense.

PASSED by the council November 18, 1985 and signed by the mayor November 19, 1985.
